

Lincoln Service Trains 303 and 304

Texas Eagle Train 21

Effective Mar. 18 and 20, 2018

Attention Amtrak Customers

Due to track work being performed by Union Pacific Railroad, Amtrak Lincoln and Texas Eagle Service will be affected on Mar. 18 and 20, as follows:

Southbound, Mar. 18 and 20:

Train 303 will operate between Chicago and Bloomington-Normal, only. Alternate transportation will be provided to missed stops at Lincoln, Springfield, Carlinville, Alton and St. Louis.

Northbound, Mar. 18 and 20:

Train 304 will operate between Bloomington-Normal and Chicago, only. Bus service will be provided to missed stops at St. Louis, Alton, Carlinville, Springfield and Lincoln.

Texas Eagle Train 21:

Train 21 will hold until 4:15 p.m. at the Bloomington station for an open track.

Alternate Transportation:

- Buses 3103 and 3004 will operate non-stop express from Bloomington to St. Louis.
- Buses 5003 and 5004 will make limited station stops, serving Bloomington, Springfield, Alton and St. Louis on Mar. 18, only.
- Buses 6003 and 6004 will make all station stops, serving Bloomington, Lincoln, Springfield, Carlinville, Alton and St. Louis.
- Northbound buses will operate earlier, and southbound buses will operate later than the train schedules. Please check Amtrak.com for updated schedules.

For reservations and information, visit Amtrak.com, use our free mobile apps, speak with station personnel or call 800-USA-RAIL (1-800-872-7245). Thank you for traveling with Amtrak.